

CSR

Giving back is part of who we are. Our CSR efforts focus on inspiring the next generation, supporting our people, and driving dialogue across the design and sustainability industries.

EMPOWERING FUTURE DESIGNERS

Inspiring the next generation of Interior Designers - We were delighted to welcome a cohort of enthusiastic 1st-year interior design students from Amity University to our head office in April for an engaging workshop focused on sample board preparation, a key skill for bringing design concepts to life. Our team loved sharing insights, offering practical advice, and answering questions as part of our ongoing commitment to nurturing future industry experts.
